

The aim of Shropshire Scribes is to foster the arts of calligraphy and lettering, encouraging high standards in them and increasing public appreciation of them. We were founded in 1998, to help members practise and enjoy these arts, and we provide activities, services, information and good teaching. We are affiliated to the Calligraphy and Lettering Arts Society (CLAS).

Shropshire Scribes now offer:

- A welcome to all who are interested in calligraphy and lettering: the accomplished, the improvers, the complete beginners;
- Evening talks, demonstrations and discussions, with time for advice;
- Saturday workshops (discounted for members) mostly conducted by professional calligraphers;
- Advice and information;
- Membership card bringing discounts at some local shops;
- Newsletters (four per year) – giving details of our programmes, news of calligraphic events, hints and tips, opportunities for calligraphers and letterers, reviews, articles on aspects of calligraphy and lettering – even the occasional joke.
- Website – this is a recent development (and a work in progress) offering news and events, updates, examples of Shropshire Scribes' work, background of Shropshire Scribes and other useful and interesting information.
